

School for Tibetan Children

Sunday school is held weekly at our center for the local Tibetan children to learn Tibetan language, Tibetan culture, and the unique Tibetan traditions. Our objective is to preserve the endangered Tibetan culture and make sure that Tibetan children can read and write their own language and maintain their cultural heritage. Nevertheless our center welcomes all children who are interested in studying Tibetan language and culture. Please refer to the schedule page for time and dates.